

Marine Sciences Experiential Learning Opportunities

➤ Domestic Field Study

- UGA Marine Institute: Coastal Spring Semester on Sapelo Island
- UGA Marine Institute: Coastal Summer Semester on Sapelo Island

➤ Summer Study Abroad

- UGA Discover Abroad: Maymester Australia & New Zealand; Animal Behavior
- UGA Discover Abroad: Maymester Australia & New Zealand; Issues in Sustainability
- AIFS: Australia
- CISabroad: Australia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Hawaii, Italy, New Zealand, and Scotland
- International Studies Abroad (ISA): New Zealand, Australia
- School of Field Studies: Chile; Panama; Turks & Caicos

➤ Semester Study Abroad

- UGA Exchange: University of Liverpool; Liverpool, United Kingdom
- UGA Exchange: Universidad San Francisco de Quito; Quito, Ecuador
- UGA Exchange: University of Sydney; Sydney, Australia
- UGA Discover Abroad: Spring Semester; Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Hawaii
- API: Edinburgh, Scotland Heriot-Watt University (+possible 3 weeks in Malaysia)
- IES Abroad: Quito, Ecuador and Galapagos Islands

➤ Internship or Volunteer (Domestic & International)

- UGA Marine Extension and Georgia Sea Grant
- Skidaway Institute of Oceanography, UGA Marine Institute, GA Coastal Long Term Ecological Research, Ecosystem Impacts of Oil and Gas inputs to the Gulf (ECOGIG)
- UGA Washington Semester
- CISabroad: Australia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Hawaii, Italy, New Zealand, and Scotland
- Global Experiences: Sydney, Australia
- Marine Careers: A Sea Grant Guide to Ocean Opportunities
- Shark & Marine Research Institute: South Africa

➤ Post-Graduation

- Peace Corps
Volunteer with Peace Corps after graduation! Volunteers lead grassroots efforts to protect the environment and strengthen understanding of environmental issues. Volunteers also address environmental degradation by promoting sustainable use of natural resources.